

OUTLINES.

In the Georgia Democratic primaries yesterday Hoke Smith was named for Governor over Clark Howell and three other candidates; he carried 110 counties out of 145; W. R. Joyner was chosen for Mayor of Atlanta.—One hundred Porto Rican laborers arrived at New Orleans yesterday to work on sugar plantations.—M. J. Sage & Co., New York brokers, failed for a large amount yesterday.—The Tennessee Democratic State convention yesterday endorsed Hon. Wm. J. Bryan.—Cuban insurgents, led by ex-Congressman Pino Guerra, a prominent and influential man, captured the town of San Luis yesterday, after a fight with its defenders, who surrendered; the number killed and wounded was small; the Cuban government announces that the insurrection will soon be crushed, men being recruited for that purpose; the Associated Press, however, reports the insurrection as formidable.—A plea of emotional insanity is to be the defense in the case of Harry Thaw for killing Stanford White in New York.—The State Democratic convention of Ohio yesterday heartily endorsed Bryan for President, the resolutions saying "We impatiently await the summons to fight under his banner."—Captain George B. Boynton and Lawyer Lewis M. Thomson were arrested in New York yesterday for having dies made to counterfeit Venezuelan silver dollars to finance a revolution against President Castro; they are liable to a penitentiary term of five years.—The latest tidings from Valparaiso are that the earthquake last Thursday evening killed 2,000 people and destroyed from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000 of property, including all hospitals and theatres and all churches but one; it is stated that 80,000 people will leave the city.—New York Markets: Money on call strong, 4 to 7 per cent., ruling rate 5, closing bid 4, offered at 5; spot cotton quiet, 10.10; flour steady; wheat easy, No. 2 red, 77½; corn easy; No. 2, 57½; oats steady, mixed 36; turpentine firm; rosin quiet.

The young man with political aspirations will view with alarm the fact that it cost Governor Yates, of Illinois, $15,500 to conduct a campaign in the Republican primary election with a view to getting the people to give him Senator Cullom's job. Cullom won out and as a matter of course he is "out" a good deal, too.

The ever-esteemed Washington Post says: "The people who complain that President Roosevelt gets too much 'advertising' should remember that this is a 'business' administration." No newspaper man has the heart to blame him for recognizing the benefits and advantages of "advertising," but we draw the line when he utilizes his Summer vacation to act as press agent for the G. O. P.

When King Edward and Emperor William met they kissed, but they are exonerated, because it is the custom for monarchs to do the likes of that. We do not hesitate to say that if we were a monarch we'd fight shy of visiting countries ruled over by the whiskered fraternity and confine our visits to countries whose destinies are committed to the alabaster and jeweled hands of a queen who hasn't been on the turf so very long.

Col. Bryan as a politician is as "independent as a hog on ice." In spite of the fact that he "sassed" the Illinois Democrats and wouldn't give two straws whether they endorsed him or not, they did endorse him and gave him to understand that he is the finest thing on the turf. P. S. Politicians of the scrub class should not be misled into trying to imitate the upishness of Bryan if they are not hankering after skidoo orders from their constituents.

Right in the midst of the hot season, Poultny Bigelow has again lifted the lid off the Panama canal. Just because his first magazine article was disputed and classed as muck-rakish, he went back to the canal zone, remained six weeks and confirms and adds to his original assault on the canal management, operations and conditions. In the September Cosmopolitan he writes of canal affairs in a manner that will make the Canal Commission's press agent get busy to answer.

LYON LED THE SHOOT

Durham Man Won Majority of Events in First Day of Tournament.

ENTRIES NEARLY FORTY

Professionals Led by Jno. R. Taylor, Ohio Expert—Rain Rather Interfered with Morning's Exercises. Regular Programme for To-day.

George L. Lyon, of Durham, led the shooting of non-professionals in the first day's events of the Inter-State tournament, under the auspices of the Wilmington Gun Club, on the local grounds yesterday, breaking a total of 185 out of 200 targets in the ten events scheduled for the day. Mr. Lyon likewise led in the prize winning, there being $10 added money in each event. "Billy" Simms, crack shot of the Wilson Club, was second, with a score of 179, and McAdams, of Due West, S. C., third in a score of 178. J. E. Crayton, of Charlotte, and Brooke G. Emple, of Wilmington, were next in a tie of 176. The same score was made by E. H. Storr, of Charlotte, professional, but the professionals did not enter for prizes.

The shooting by the professionals was led by John R. Taylor, of Newark, Ohio, representing the Winchester Repeating Arms Company. Mr. Taylor made the fine record of 192 out of the 200 targets in the ten events of the day. Other high scores by professionals were recorded by Col. J. T. Anthony, of Charlotte, with the U. M. C. Company; Mr. E. H. Storr, with the Peters Cartridge Company, and Mr. A. M. Hatchel, of Bristol, Tenn., with the American Powder Mills.

Rain rather interfered with the tournament during the morning and the men at the traps had to seek shelter for about an hour soon after shooting began. However, the skies soon brightened and the events during the afternoon were pulled off in good shape. Better weather is expected to-day and the meet promises to close up with a great success. One of the events scheduled for to-day is a 100-target match between a team of five from the Wilmington Club and a like number from the Charlotte Club. The locals are going strong on the showing they expect to make and the professionals who watched the shooters yesterday are ready to back the Wilmingtonians.

The shoot began promptly at 9 o'clock yesterday morning with thirty-five entries, most of whom entered for the entire programme of the day. In addition to the professionals, among the visitors were the following: Todd, of Charlotte; Collins, of Due West, S. C.; Dr. Johnson, of Raleigh; Taylor, of Newark, Ohio; Lyon, of Durham; Mitchell, of Thomasville, Ga.; Storr, of Charlotte; Briley, of Thomasville, Ga.; Walls, of Wilson; Sims, of Wilson; Barnes, of Wilson; Harris, C. H., of Rocky Mount; Killett, of Wilson; Ellington, of Raleigh; Crayton, of Charlotte; Bates, of Charlotte, and McAdams, of Due West, S. C.

There were also on the grounds a large number of spectators, who manifested great interest in the sport. A larger number will be present to-day if the weather is more inviting. Refreshments are served on the grounds and the visitors are being shown every courtesy. Most of the number went to the beach after the shoot yesterday to spend the night by the ocean.

There will be ten events again to-day with the team shoot and the outcome is being watched with interest.

Looking for Murderers.

Officer Walker, of Charleston, S. C., arrived in the city on the late train last night in search of two of three negroes who foully murdered a white man near Charleston Monday. A report reached Charleston that a negro tramp hurt on the railroad and brought to the hospital here was one of the fugitives, but Officer Walker at the hospital this morning found that the negro here is not one of the men wanted. He will return to Charleston to-day. One of the negroes has been captured, but the other two are still at large. An account of the murder appeared in The Star Tuesday.

STANDARD OIL TANK

Building Inspector Bonitz Back From Trip North—Will Allow Work to Proceed With Ample Safeguards Already Accepted.

Building Inspector H. E. Bonitz returned last night from Washington, Alexandria and Baltimore, where he investigated the safeguards employed in those cities with reference to tanks of the Standard Oil Company, with a view of requiring them in the construction of the new tank here about which there was so much muss kicked up last week. Mr. Bonitz secured photographs of several of the plants in the cities named and has made certain demands upon the Standard Oil Company as to safeguards which the company has cheerfully accepted and work on the reservoir will begin at noon to-day again on a permit from the office of Mr. Bonitz. It is not expected that there will be any further objections from the property owners after the safeguards required by Mr. Bonitz are thrown around the property. Mr. Bonitz submitted his plans in this respect and told of the result of his investigation to the Streets and Wharves Committee at the City Hall last night, and very general satisfaction was expressed by Chairman O'Brien and Messrs. Yopp and Karr, the other members of the committee.

M. Bonitz found in the cities visited that a brick wall around the premises was all that was required, and he has required a substantial one ten feet high to be placed around the tank here; also a concrete basin for the drawing off of the oil in case of the bursting of the tank. These walls are to form an enclosure sufficiently large to hold the contents of the tank in case of a fire, iron steps leading over the wall to be used in lieu of gates. The company also agrees to improve the property with a granolithic sidewalk all around the property and to place a fire hydrant on the corner with spray nozzle in case of an accident. This is all and more than is required in any of the cities visited and Mr. Bonitz is well satisfied that the safeguards will be ample.

JOHNSON RESIGNS

Popular Captain, Corps of Engineers, United States Army, Here to Leave Service of Government—Wilmington Regrets Announcement.

Capt. Robert P. Johnston, Corps of Engineers, United States Army, in this city, has resigned his commission as an officer in the Army and the same is effective September 17th. This announcement will be received with regret in the business and social circles of Wilmington where Capt. Johnston was held in the very highest esteem. While it has been known for some time that Capt. Johnston had about served the three years that the government usually allows an engineer to remain in one district, the hope was cherished that on account of the scarcity of competent men in the service, that Capt. Johnston's time would be allowed to lapse and that he would remain at this station for at least a year longer. He has been exceedingly popular with Wilmington people and his retirement will be a distinct disappointment. He was regarded by the business interests of the port as one of the most valuable men ever stationed here and his recent triumph in having his plan of improvement of the Cape Fear river adopted by the National government at once stamped him as a man with great influence with the War Department and a man of practicability and energy.

Capt. Johnston is at present in Washington on leave of absence and could not be seen yesterday as to his plans for the future. The only information is contained in Army orders issued from Washington Monday extending his leave of absence until Sept. 17th, and accepting his resignation permanently. It is said, however, that Capt. Johnston will return to his former home at Asheville, N. C., and will have charge of large private interests which he has there. Capt. Johnston receives a salary of something like $3,500 as a captain of a Corps of Engineers and that he leaves duties so remunerative and pleasant, is construed to mean that he has an attractive offering in another field. It is to be greatly regretted that Wilmington loses Capt. Johnston and more to be regretted that his services are to be lost to the government. There is as yet no intimation as to Capt. Johnston's successor here.

MONEY IN ELECTIONS

Dr. Culbreth, Candidate for Legislature, Has Strong Views on Subject.

PRIMARY LAW IS QUOTED

Subterfuges Resorted To Are Laid Bare and All Candidates Are Asked to Join in Suppression of the Evil.

The Star has received the following communication from Dr. N. M. Culbreth, Democratic candidate for the Legislature from this county, giving his position on the use of money to influence votes before the primaries of the party:

Mr. Editor:—Since announcing my candidacy for the Legislature, I have learned a good deal about the politics of New Hanover county, I did not know before. I am informed some of the candidates are expected to expend two or three thousand dollars each in order to secure the nomination for the office they are seeking. This money is not used, as I understand it, to buy votes direct as this would be a too flagrant violation of the law, but it is used to hire men in the different wards to go around in these wards, stand at the corners and persuade the voters to vote for this or that candidate; and after all it is using money to influence votes and is a violation of the spirit, if not the letter of the law, and should be frowned down by all good citizens. The law says: "If any person shall attempt to influence the vote of another by the use of intoxicating liquors or shall bribe or offer to bribe any voter by a promise of anything or a reward to be delivered, or a service to be performed prior to, at the time, or subsequent to the primary, he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined not less than $25 nor more than $500."

It will be seen by the reading of this law, it is a misdemeanor for any person to even attempt to influence the vote of another by a promise of

COAST LINE STOCK

Circular From Wilmington Firm Compares Earnings With Illinois Central and Says A. C. L. is Selling Much Below Its Value.

C. P. Bolles & Co., of this city, have issued a bulletin circular comparing the earnings of the Atlantic Coast Line with the Illinois Central. The circular says:

"If Atlantic Coast Line is as well managed (and we believe it is) as Illinois Central, and if Atlantic Coast Line's territory is developing as rapidly as Illinois Central (and we believe it is), then Atlantic Coast Line common, based on its earning capacity and future prospects, should sell on a parity with Illinois Central, or at about 162. It would, therefore, seem that Atlantic Coast Line common is selling much below its real value."

The circular gives the following comparisons: Atlantic Coast Line, gross earnings for the year ending June 30, $24,868,445; operating expenses, $16,148,198, or 64.93 per cent.; net earnings, $8,720,247; other income, $11,149,995, from which is deducted for interest and taxes, $5,640,701 and $744,000, leaving a surplus of $4,765,294; dividend on preferred stock, $79,830, leaving a balance of $4,685,464 per cent. earned on common stock, $10.65; market value of common $142; per cent. earned on market value, 7.50.

For the Illinois Central the following figures are given:

|                                                                                     |              |

SEABOARD ROAD BED

Link Between Wilmington and Hamlet Inspected Yesterday by Corporation Commission—Accompanied by Superintendent Jenks.

Hon. Franklin McNeill, chairman, and Messrs. Rogers and Beddingfield, of the North Carolina Corporation Commission, were here yesterday afternoon, leaving on the evening train for Raleigh, having just completed an inspection of the road bed of the Seaboard Air Line between Wilmington and Hamlet, concerning which there have been a number of complaints recently, as was noted in a dispatch from Raleigh to The Star yesterday. Members of the Commission came from Hamlet and travelled on a special train of the road, immediately following the regular train, this mode of travel having been necessary to allow members of the Commission to stop along at any points on the road where it might be deemed expedient. Of course, members of the Commission would give no intimation of the result of their inspection, but will embody their findings in an official report to be made public from the office in Raleigh later.

Members of the Commission were accompanied on the trip of inspection by Superintendent W. J. Jenks, of this division of the road, and Capt. J. F. Harrison, roadmaster of the Wilmington-Hamlet division. It seems that the Commission's power is rather limited in matters of this kind. It can recommend improvement of conditions, but has no power to enforce improvements. The visit of the Commission however, is expected to result in good and will probably hasten the laying of heavier rails on the link, which, it has been understood, has been in contemplation for some time. Messrs. McNeill, Rogers and Beddingfield were guests at The Orton for the few hours they spent in the city. Mr. Jenks and Capt. Harrison, of the Seaboard, returned on the regular Carolina Central train in the afternoon.

STATE UNDERWRITERS.

Annual Meeting This Week in Charlotte—The Officers.

Col. Walker Taylor left yesterday for Charlotte, N. C., where he will attend the annual meeting of the North Carolina Fire Underwriters' Association, which will be called to order there this morning at 11 o'clock. The Association is composed of all the prominent insurance men of the State and the Charlotte meeting is expected to be the most successful yet held. Capt. J. Van B. Metts, of this city, a member of the executive committee, finds it impossible to attend the meeting.

The officers of the Association are: Messrs. Clarence Womack, of Reidsville, president; J. A. Wendell, of Tarboro, vice president, and Charles A. Scott, of Graham, secretary and treasurer. The following named constitute the executive committee: Messrs. A. B. Daingerfield, of Winston-Salem; Capt. J. M. Little, of Wadesboro; J. Van B. Metts, of Wilmington; W. W. Smith, of Raleigh, and R. W. Murray, of Greensboro.

COLORED MAN DROWNED.

Fell Into Timber Pen at Cape Fear Mill Yesterday.

Stephen Washington, colored, 43 years of age, employed for a number of years in handling logs from the timber pen to the mill at the plant of the Cape Fear Lumber Company, in the northern part of the city, fell overboard in some way early yesterday afternoon and was drowned before half a dozen or more employees in the immediate vicinity could pull him out. It is thought that as he fell, his head struck a log or some other object and he was stunned by the blow. His body was pulled out of the water in five minutes after he fell, but all efforts to resuscitate him were fruitless. Dr. C. D. Bell, the coroner, was summoned, but as there were no circumstances requiring it, no inquest was held. Washington was removed to his home, 912 North Fifth street, where his wife and a number of children live. Washington had some property and was generally regarded as a good citizen. He will be buried to-day.

With "The County Chairman."

Mr. Marx S. Nathan left yesterday for Charlotte, where he will spend several days installing a new manager as his successor at the Academy of Music there. Later Mr. Nathan goes to New York to take out "The County Chairman," one of the big theatrical productions recently purchased by Mr. S. A. Schloss, of this city.

FRUIT AND TRUCKING

Prospectus of the Forthcoming Fair to Be Held in Eastern Carolina.

PROBABLY AT WILMINGTON

Provided For By State Department of Agriculture—Some of the Features of the Proposed Exhibition and Advantages.

The Star has received, with a request to publish, the following with reference to the fruit and truck fair which it is proposed to hold, one in Eastern North Carolina and the other in the Western part of the State, during the coming Spring, under the auspices of the State Department of Agriculture:

At a recent meeting of the North Carolina Horticultural Society held at Aberdeen, it was resolved by the Society to hold two annual fairs, one in Eastern North Carolina and one in the Western part of the State. The object of these fairs is to further stimulate the fast growing interest in the truck and fruit growing industries, which are such potent factors in the development of our State; to encourage the tendency among our truckers and fruit growers to keep in touch with each other—the only means of co-operation, and to open the eyes of the many who are not cognizant of the fact that probably in no State in the Union are the natural advantages of soil and climate comparable with those found in North Carolina.

The features connected with these fairs will be the exhibition of preserved vegetables and fruits grown in the respective areas where the fair is held. These are being prepared by Mr. H. H. Brimly, State Curator. The Carolina Trucking Development Company will also have a similar display. Samples of grain, seed, hay, etc., will be shown. A list of premiums will be arranged by the Society to be awarded to the growers of the best fresh vegetables, berries and fruits, and large photographs illustrating the growing crops, harvesting scenes, etc., will be furnished by the State Department of Agriculture and by the Carolina Trucking Development Company.

There will probably be arranged a series of lectures, touching upon such subjects as varieties of fruit and vegetables, fertilization, shipping, plant diseases, etc. Experts upon these subjects, holding positions with the North Carolina Department of Agriculture, will lend their services for the occasion. An attempt will be made to have the United States Department of Agriculture to co-operate in the undertaking, demonstrating soil fertility by the wire basket method, furnishing samples of new plants which can probably be successfully grown in North Carolina, etc. The first of these fairs will be held in Eastern North Carolina.

Since Wilmington is in the heart of the strawberry and lettuce, in addition to the general trucking section, and its location the most accessible of any town in the Eastern part of the State, it has been practically decided upon by the committee on fairs as the best place to hold the first one. The citizens of Wilmington have offered to more than duplicate the amount to be appropriated by the State Department of Agriculture. Those who realize the advantages to be gained by this kind of advertising and know the benefits which not only the respective portions of the State but also the truckers and fruit growers themselves enjoy from it, should lend enthusiastic support. The success of the first institution will largely assure their permanency. The attention of our farmers should be repeatedly called to it, and should be frequently discussed at large by those who have the agricultural interests of the State at heart. The first fair will be held next Spring about May 1st, when strawberries, lettuce and cauliflower, and many other of the most important truck crops of Eastern North Carolina will be available for display. Since nothing more is broadening than the exchange of ideas which require original thought and nothing acts more as an incentive to surpass than confidence in one's own knowledge of a subject, the idea originated by the Horticultural Society merits much encouragement.

Wanted.

An active, intelligent and sober young man is wanted to act as traveling agent and general solicitor for The Morning Star. The very best references and recommendations required. A resident of Wilmington preferred.

Still Ahead in Low Prices

Our regular prices are much cheaper than any special prices yet advertised. Our goods are NEW. The following shows how and why we do and can undersell.

Discount on account of large purchases, average, 10 pr. ct
Discount for cash (we pay cash), average 10 pr. ct
Savings of freight on car shipment, average 5 pr. ct
Total, 25 pr. ct

As you see, we can sell goods at a profit of 25 per cent. and at the same time sell them for just what they would cost us if we bought in small quantities, paid local freight and bought on time. We do not try to make 25 per cent.

Our claim is corroborated by the number of prudent purchasers we send. For June the 1st to the present, we have sold $4,540.21 worth of goods, received more than $3,300.00 in cash. Our books are open for inspection of any doubters. When in need of furniture come to headquarters.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Raleigh News and Observer, Aug. 21: Supt. E. C. Brooks, of the Goldsboro public schools, and editor of the North Carolina Journal of Education, is in the city, making final preparations for the initial number of the Journal, which will be issued September 15th.

—The influx of visitors to the mountains continues and the season in Western North Carolina is now at its height. Those in positions to be well informed say that never before have there been such crowds of visitors and tourists in Asheville and other resort towns in the mountains.

—Raleigh correspondence, Aug. 20: This afternoon Auditor Dixon and Mr. A. B. Stromach, members of the Soldiers' Home board of trustees, inspected the home. Dr. Dixon says that there are now 25 or 30 applicants for admission. The home is nearly full. A few rooms on the second floor of the new dormitory are yet unfurnished. The home will be full by October 1st.

—Monday night a negro child four years old fell in Contentnea Creek from the bridge near the Wilson light and power plant. A search for the child was begun with the result that it was found by Mr. Joe Farmer some distance down the stream hung upon a rock, with only a few bruises, but otherwise alive and well, and little the worse for a drop into the water of probably twenty feet.

—The walls and roof of the new infirmary building at Wake Forest College are complete. It is expected that the building will be ready for occupancy by September 1st. It is two stories high, with upper verandas on two sides, built of concrete blocks and costing $7,000. Prof. J. G. Carlyle is now engaged in raising the remainder of the funds necessary to its completion and equipment.

—Mr. Paul Yelverton met with a most serious accident at Goldsboro Saturday night, at the home of his father Mr. W. T. Yelverton, which came near resulting in his death. In opening a stable door his hand came in contact with a live wire, which threw him suddenly to the floor. He attempted to rise and fell back, and then made another attempt, this time falling back unconscious, in which condition he remained for five hours.

—Greensboro special, Aug. 21: At a meeting tonight attended by Republicans and three newspaper men in the rooms of the Tar Heel Club resolutions endorsing "Uncle Joe" Cannon as the next Republican candidate for President were passed. The resolutions will be forwarded to Washington, where a meeting is to be held Thursday night to launch the Cannon boom. Congressman Blackburn is a strong supporter of Speaker Cannon. The meeting adjourned to reconvene later.

—Chickamauga special to Raleigh News and Observer: The United States Army officers here praise the North Carolina regiment as being the best looking body of men, the best equipped and with the camp in better condition than any other regiment that has been here. But best of all, the regulars recognize that it is a plucky lot of men. One of the regular officers said this afternoon, after looking over the regiment, "They look like fighters and I feel sure that if they went into battle they would make a fine record." He is right, that's the North Carolina way.

—Louisburg special, August 21: News of another homicide reached here yesterday, occurring in Cypress Creek township, near Justice postoffice. Several days ago Tillett Chavis, colored, went to the home of Mary Waldrop and assaulted her with threats to kill. Her son took a gun and shot him. It was reported that John Yarboro, colored, came up about this time and was involved in the affair, shooting Chavis three times, the principal wound being in the head and breast. Chavis lived several days, however, and while being carried home on Sunday, died on the way. It is learned later from the woman Waldrop, who is attending court this week, that her two sons fired the shots which killed Chavis, and not John Yarboro.

—Goldsboro special, Aug. 21: This afternoon about four o'clock young Arthur Grady, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Grady was drowned in Little River, Arthur Grady, Spencer Rackley, Talton and Sedie Harris were swimming at the "Shad Hole," just below the water works, and young Grady got beyond his depth and drowned before assistance could reach him. As soon as the news was received here a party of citizens left immediately for the scene and search was instituted for the missing body, which was recovered at 6:30 o'clock, near where it sank. Arthur was 13 years old, the hope and pride of fond parents. His father was completely prostrated over the fatality and is now in a critical condition, three doctors being in attendance upon him.

—Washington special to Raleigh

News and Observer, Aug. 21: There was confirmation today of the story first published in this correspondence last week to the effect that Representative Blackburn has preferred charges against District Attorney Holton with the object of bringing about his removal. The case against Mr. Holton, in which the District Attorney is charged with having induced witnesses to sign affidavits that did not contain truthful statements to be used in the prosecution against the Congressman at Greensboro, has been brought to the attention of officials at the Department of Justice. It was learned today that Mr. Blackburn was at the Department the day before he left here for Maine, and it is assumed that this visit at that time related to the movement to accomplish Mr. Holton's removal.

—Louisburg special, August 21: The negro Harris, who assaulted Herbert Collins, white, has been captured and is now in jail. The circumstances of the assault are peculiarly vicious. Mr. Collins was on his way home in a loaded wagon when the negro asked him to let him ride with him. Mr. Collins noticing that he had a bar of iron with him, asked him what he was doing with it, receiving the reply that he was carrying it home for his children to play with. Mr. Collins was entirely unsuspecting of the negro as they rode along, when suddenly, the negro gave him a terrific blow on the head with the iron bar, knocking him unconscious. Wagons coming on behind containing friends, soon drove up and gave him attention. The motive was supposed to have been robbery. The negro escaped for the time being, but was caught and locked up yesterday.

—Asheville special, Aug. 20: The police of Asheville are at work on what is either another bold burglary or an attempt to commit criminal assault. Yesterday morning between 3 and 4 o'clock Mrs. Lamb and daughter, of Rollins street, were awakened by some one moving about in their room. Mr. Lamb, employed by the Southern Railway Company, was absent on duty at the railway shops. The mother and daughter were badly frightened but one of them sprang from the bed and rushing past the intruder to a hallway, gave the alarm, awakening other occupants of the house. The man, identified by the dim light as a negro, at first made no effort to escape, but held his ground. Realizing, however, after a few seconds hesitation that there were others in the house besides the two ladies, he turned and sprang through an open window, making good his escape.

—Durham special, August 21: The police today unearthed a wholesale jewelry thief in the person of a colored girl, Bessie Freeland. She was arrested, plead guilty in two charges to stealing jewelry. There are other cases which may develop against her. She was not only a wholesale but rather a sleek thief as well. She stole on short acquaintance. A few days ago she was employed at a well-known boarding house and in three days had stolen $75 worth of jewelry from Mrs. W. H. Alexander. Yesterday afternoon she went to the home of Mr. J. M. Reams to get employment and while talking to Mrs. Reams stole two gold pins and made her escape. The police are looking for other stolen stuff and may fix this on the Freeland girl. She went to jail in default of bond and will be given a trial at Superior Court next week.

—A Lumberton correspondent writing of the tragic death of Mr. R. E. Wishart in Florida says: "Mr. Wishart's death is worthy of more than mere mention. He was born in Robeson county 55 years ago last March. Thirty years ago he moved to Georgia and engaged in the turpentine industry. Eight years ago he left that State and went to Florida to live. It is understood he had made and was making good money. Besides a large number of more distant relatives, he has two sisters and two brothers living. They are Messdames I. J. Belch, of Bellamy; C. F. Cottingham, of Clio, S. C.; Messrs. A. S. Wishart, of Lumberton, and J. W. Wishart, of Wilmington. Mr. Wishart was one of five, his brother, Mr. A. S. Wishart, also being of the number, who received a proportionate part of the $6,000 reward for killing Tom Lowrie, a member of the Lowrie outlaw gang, in 1872. Col. F. M. Wishart, their brother, had been killed by the Lowrie gang a few weeks before. It was to avenge his death that his brothers, Messrs. A. S. and R. E. Wishart, organized the "Wishart Company" to hunt and kill the Lowries.

—Salisbury special, Aug. 21: Engineer R. L. James, one of the best-known men on the Western North Carolina division of the Southern, was very badly disfigured last night on his way to Asheville. He was passing a siding known as Majolica, five miles west of Salisbury. He ran late and, having orders to meet a train at a certain place, was making fast time. He was leaning out of the cab, as is the wont of engineers, and watching the track, which runs into a deep cut above. There were some cars loaded with lumber on the long siding there and a projecting piece of timber caught the side of his face and literally tore it off. The end of his nose was cut off, his right cheek was taken from the bone and the molar knocked out. Mr. James sank into his cab and the engine was taken in charge by the fireman, who pulled it until he met a train, upon which Mr. James was put and sent back to Salisbury.

—Greensboro special, August 21: Owing to a misunderstanding growing out of the discharge of a yard conductor at the Southern Railway yards here this afternoon forty train employees walked out. Passenger trains arriving since are doing the shifting with their own crews. Resenting the discharge of the conductor, Yardmaster Bilbro resigned, and the shifting crews, even the clerks, within a few minutes quit work. Matters are unsettled, awaiting the arrival of General Superintendent Coapman, from Danville, and Division Superintendent Andrew, from Durham. Local freights are fast filling up all trackage. The strikers are members of the order of Railway Conductors or Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen.

—Raleigh special, August 21: Mr. Henry Neithling left here to-day on a long journey, to his home in South Africa. For two years he has been in Alaska, Canada and North Carolina. He has been at the agricultural department here. He takes with him several thousands North Carolina insects, in boxes, collected during his stay. This brings up the fact that last week a wasp was caught here which was sent to Washington and found to be of a species never before found outside of British India. It is also true that there is found near Raleigh a rabbit which is known nowhere else. Specimens of this rabbit are now in the British Museum, to which they were sent by a naturalist of Raleigh.

—Goldsboro special, Aug. 21: Though there is much mystery surrounding the death of Miss Minnie Waddell, who was found dead in a marl hole, about four miles from Fremont, Coroner Stanley, who returned from the scene late yesterday evening reports the finding of jury as follows: "That said Minnie Waddell, 18 years of age, came to her death at her own hands by drowning." As already stated, there is much mystery surrounding this sad affair. Miss Waddell had a good home, was loved by all who knew her and she had only to express a wish and it was granted by her now heartbroken parents. Sunday afternoon Miss Waddell took her umbrella and said to her mother that she would go and visit Miss Holland, who lived a half mile up the road from her home. She left the road half way between her home and Miss Holland's, taking to the woods. She was tracked to a place where it appears that she lay down and not far from where her umbrella was found. The marl hole in which she was found dead, is surrounded by high weeds and grass. Some say they believe she fell in accidentally, and others hold to the belief that she drowned herself. There are many who still hold to the belief that she was murdered. They base their belief upon the fact that the water was not deep enough for her to drown in.

HORSESHOE NAILS.

The Way They Are Turned Out by Expert Workmen.

Three million separate shoe nails are often cast from a ton of metal. Of the smaller sizes 2,000 nails are molded in a single mold, and an expert workman will make eighty molds in an ordinary working day, thus turning out 160,000 separate nails.

When the metal in a liquid state is poured into the mold it runs through the sand in passages provided in the molding process. The whole of the nails are cast together and are, when removed from the sand, connected by a network of iron ore with another. In this condition the iron is as brittle as glass, and very little force is required to separate the nails from the network which holds them together.

They then have to undergo the process known as annealing. They are mixed up with hematite iron ore, which is in a powdered state, put into iron pots and placed in an annealing furnace, a sort of kiln. Here they remain for some days, care being taken to so regulate the heat to which they are subjected that the iron will not be remelted, but brought very nearly to that condition. The action of the raw iron ore upon the brittle casting is marvelous. After cooling it can be bent without risk of breaking, and it becomes a useful and serviceable article.

FOR THE LITTLE ONES.

Why the Marsh Wren Builds More Than One Nest.

One of the most energetic nest builders is the marsh wren. In fact, he has the habit to such a degree that he cannot stop with one nest, but goes on building four or five in rapid succession. And there is nothing slovenly about his work either. Look among the cat tails in the nearest marsh, even within the limits of a great city, and you will find his little woven balls of reed stems, with a tiny round hole in one side. There is a certain method even in his madness, for the nest in which his wife is brooding her seven or eight eggs is less likely to be found when there are so many empty ones around. Then, too, he uses the others as roosting places for himself.—Recreation.

A Thrifty Irish Woman.
An Irish castle was once built at a cost of fourpence, or only 8 cents of American money. It took a woman to accomplish this, and she lived more than 200 years ago. She was Anastasia, the wife of John Archdeacon. Her husband having gone to war, she determined to surprise him on his return. She hired a large number of workmen, stipulating that while employed by her they should buy all their clothes and provisions from her. She managed the business so skillfully—and tradition does not accuse her of any unfairness or of taking any mean advantage—that the castle was completed, and her accounts showed that it had cost only the amount named. The castle now stands on the estate of Lord de Vesci, near Cork.

Praying For the Sister.
Mrs. Bitter—I just hate that woman. I hope she'll lose all her money, get some disfiguring illness, be run down by a train—Rev. Goodhart—Sister, sister! We are told to pray for our enemies. Mrs. Bitter—Well, I'm praying for all those things for her.—Philadelphia Press.

PUNISHMENT SWIFT

Man Who Assaulted Venerable Street
Employee Bound to High Court and Dismissed From Service of City
—Municipal Court.The assault on Mr. Richard Reaves, the venerable street sweeper in the employ of the city, by R. B. Lucas, another sweeper, was investigated
yesterday at noon in the police court before Mayor Pro Tem. O'Brien who held the defendant for the higher court under bond of $50 which was furnished by Mr. M. F. Croom. Mr.
Reaves was able to be in court but was badly disfigured as the result of the assault. Neither side was represented by counsel. Lucas admitted the assault but would not say whether he struck Mr. Reaves with his fist or with a broom. Mayor Pro Tem.
O'Brien is also chairman of the Streets and Wharves Committee of the city, and having tried the case he felt duty bound to have the conduct of the employee investigated by his committee. Accordingly both men were summoned before the body later in the afternoon. Mr. Reaves was fully exonerated. Mr. Lucas did not put in an appearance and on the statement of Mr. Reaves he was dismissed from the service of the city.Other cases before the municipal court yesterday were not important.
A negro whose name was entered on the police court blotter as "Liar" Butler, but whose real name is Elias Butler and is the same who escaped from the station house Monday night after being arrested by Officer E. Piner, at Front and Princess streets, was discharged. He was charged with being asleep on the street. Butler said he was waiting for the last car to go to the beach where he was employed and dropped off "unbeknownst" to himself. On his sprinting record, the Mayor held that he was not drunk and let him go. Lula Thompson, a negroess charged with slapping a little daughter of Police Sergeant King, was let off with the cost after humbly apologizing to the parents of the little girl.
Scipio Sterling, colored, was bound to Superior Court for an assault with a knife on James McKay.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Mr. Horace A. Baggs has broken the monotony by announcing himself
a candidate for County Commissioner.—The schooner Edgar C. Ross, Capt. Quillen, has arrived in port with a cargo of salt which she is discharging at the Carolina Central warehouses. The vessel is to C. D. Maffit.—James McKay, a young negro, was committed to jail by Justice Furlong to await preliminary trial at noon today on a charge of an assault with a deadly weapon upon Richard Foy, colored.—Elsewhere in to-day's paper will be found an advertisement asking for bids for building retaining wall for the fill of the ravine near Front and Wright streets. Proposals will be received until noon, Sept. 4th.—The following deeds were filed for record yesterday: W. A. Snell to W. R. Beery, for $60, two acres of land near the second toll house; Thos.
D. Meares, Jr., to Calvin J. Reaves, for $50, property at northwest corner of Fourth and Meares streets.—A Hamlet correspondent writes:
"Rev. L. W. Curtis, of Southport, who was extended a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church here, has signified his acceptance and will enter upon his duties the third Sunday in September. The congregation here is congratulating itself upon securing Mr. Curtis as its pastor and he will receive a hearty welcome to his new field of labor."

HANOVER SEASIDE CLUB.

Opening of Handsome Quarters on Wrightsville Beach Thursday Night.An enthusiastic meeting of Hanover Seaside Club was held last night in the Howard Relief Club rooms. Besides other business transacted, it was decided to have the formal opening of the handsome new club house on Wrightsville Beach on next Thursday night. The building is now about complete and presents a most attractive appearance. The opening Thursday night will be in every way fitting to the life of the Club and to the end that all arrangements may be carried out, the following committee has been appointed to have all matters in charge: Messrs. Wm. B. Shuler, chairman; William Tienken, E. Poelitz, Martin Schnibben, E. Schulten, Jno.
C. Boesch, C. H. Dock and Henry Habenicht. The committee will meet probably to-day and set all the arrangements for the delightful affair
on foot.

Married Last Evening.

Mr. Elmore Little, formerly of Norfolk, Va., but now with the Southern Bell Telephone Co., in this city, and Miss Lottie M. Gardner, a daughter of the late Thos. M. Gardner, of Wilmington, were married last evening.
Both have many friends in this city, who will be interested in the announcement of their marriage.

anything as a reward for his vote; yet
if I am correctly informed, there are being now, and will be each week, until the primary is over, hundreds of dollars used to influence voters for this or that candidate. It is said the most of this money is being expended in the First and Fifth wards for the reason the other three wards will not tolerate such methods.This is a serious reflection on the good people of the First and Fifth wards and I think it is a duty they owe themselves to rise up in their might and put this nefarious practice down, by refusing to vote for any candidate who uses money to influence votes in his favor; in fact, I think it is the duty of all good citizens to give this habit of influencing votes by the use of money a "black eye" by refusing to vote for the men who practice
it, for in this republican form of government, when the free expression of our people at the ballot box is set aside by the use of money and corruption, we are treading on dangerous grounds, and are paving the way to political disintegration, anarchy and bloodshed. I have been brought out by friends as a candidate for the Legislature, and I will appreciate the support of any and all who will favor
me with their votes but I will not use one dollar to influence any one to vote for me; neither will I knowingly violate even the spirit of the law in order to secure my election. I invite all candidates in this country to join me in this position and let us all go before the people asking their support without the use of money or any other obnoxious influences.I want to say further that the use of money to influence legislation is just as mean and despicable as that of buying votes. Any member of the Legislature who will accept money
from his constituents or any one else to use in advocating or opposing any measure before that body is unworthy to represent any people and he ought to be exposed and expelled from the Legislature for conduct unbecoming a member of the General Assembly of North Carolina. The State pays him for his services as a legislator, and this is all the compensation he should expect or receive for his services in advocating or opposing any measure which may become before that body.I do not profess to be better than hundreds, yes thousands of other men, but I say no man ever offered or even intimated to me the use of money or any other reward to get my influence or support, for any measure before the Legislature while I was a member and if even an intimation of this kind had been made I would have taken it as a personal insult and would have resented it with all the power within me.The use of money to influence elections and legislation is one of the crying evils of the day and should be opposed by all good citizens by their refusing to vote for any man who even winks at such methods. I know this is strong language and out of the usual line for a candidate to use, but I am very much in earnest about the matter, and rather be defeated entertaining the views outlined above than to be elected opposing them.Respectfully, N. M. CULBRETH.

WATER WORKS PROPOSITION.

Time for Acceptance of Proposition Expires To-day—aply.The fifteen days allowed to the Clarendon Water Works Company to accept or reject the proposition of the city to buy the present plant for $70,- 000 on the strength of the examination recently made by Prof. J. M.
Barns, for the municipality, expires at 12 o'clock to-night and there is much speculation as to the form the reply of the water company will take.
It is generally believed, however, that the company will renew its petition for an unbiased appraisalment of the property by three experts and that no answer will be made as to the acceptance or rejection of the $70,000 offer by the city. Some are inclined to the opinion that the water company will not make reply at all, but it was stated at the offices of the company
yesterday that no courteous request of the city has ever been denied a courteous reply and probably never would be.In the event that a reply is received it is probable that special meeting of the Board of Aldermen will be asked to pass upon the matter. If not, the question will come up at the regular meeting on Tuesday, Sept. 4th., the first Monday falling on Labor Day.

The Hotel Committee to Report.

A special meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held this afternoon at 4 o'clock for the purpose of hearing a report of the committee to develop the plans for a tourist hotel in Wilmington. A full attendance is requested. It is expected that the report of the committee will be final.—Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Worth and children have returned from Virginia where they have been spending some time.

SAD DEATH OF A CHILD.

Little Girl Innocently Chewed Match
Heads and Was Poisoned.M. and Mrs. W. H. Chinnis, who recently removed from Nichols, S. C., to Leland, Brunswick county, have the sympathy of friends in the distressing death of their little two-year-old daughter, Melissa Cornie, which occurred at the family home Tuesday night. The child innocently put several matches in her mouth one day
last week and became seriously ill
Monday as the result of poisoning from the heads of the matches. It suffered intensely until death came as a relief Tuesday night at 10:35 o'clock.
The bereavement is the harder for the parents to bear because only five weeks ago they lost their infant child and another, seven years old, is now desperately ill. The funeral of the little one who died Tuesday night was conducted at Summerville yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

MR. JOHN EAKINS DEAD.

Former Citizen of Atkinson, N. C., Passed Away Yesterday.Mr. John Eakins, formerly of Atkinson, N. C., but for some time past a resident and a merchant of this city,
passed away at the James Walker Memorial Hospital here yesterday after an illness of some time. Mr.
Eakins was 58 years of age and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him. For some time past he has conducted a store here. He resided at 504 North Third street.Mr. Eakins is survived by his wife and three children, Mr. E. A. Eakins, Miss Maude Eakins and Mr. Ralph Eakins, all of this city. The remains will be taken to Atkinson on the morning A. & Y. train to-day and the funeral will be conducted there at 2 o'clock this afternoon. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of many friends in the sorrow that has come to them.

Christian Science Request.

The Star is requested by the First Church of Christ, Scientist, to state, that in asking for the use of the City Hall, in which to hold their services,
they have no desire to make the city
furnish them quarters for an unlimited time. They hope to have a part of their new church ready for occupancy some months before the whole is finished and for this reason do not wish to rent their present quarters for another year. Neither do they ask the city to furnish these accommodations free; they desire to make to the city, or to the library committee, a fair compensation for the use of the hall.—Charlotte Observer: "Mr. Hugh White, of Fort Mill, S. C., passed through the city yesterday on his way to Wilmington to attend the trapshooters' tournament, which is to be held there to-day and to-morrow."

NOTICE.

I hereby announce myself a candidate for the office of County Treasurer of New Hanover county at the approaching Democratic Primary Election.
Respectfully,
J. A. MONTGOMERY.

TO COUNTERFEIT VENEZUELAN MONEY

Capt. Boynton and Lawyer Thomson Arrested in New York by Detectives.

LIABLE TO FIVE YEARS TERM

Had Dies Made to Coin Silver to Finance Revolution Against President Castro—Outfit Captured Along With Men.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
New York, August 22.—On a charge of making dies to counterfeit the standard silver dollar of Venezuela to finance a revolution in that country, Secret Service officers yesterday arrested Captain George B. Boynton, former resident manager of the Orinoco Corporation of Venezuela, and Lewis M. Thomson, an attorney, both of this city. Both prisoners were admitted to bail in $5,000.

Joseph Keller and Sidney A. Keller, of Keller Brothers, die makers, were also arrested in connection with the case and released on $1,500 bail.

The two principals aver that the plan to duplicate Venezuelan money is not counterfeiting. Later after the revolution proved successful, they said, it was expected to legalize this issue of money, both by executive decree and by act of the Venezuelan junta. The accused men characterize this plan as a "war measure." They also allege that half of the South American risings are similarly financed.

So important did the Federal authorities regard the arrest that Chief Wilkie of the secret service came over from Washington to be personally on the ground when the men were apprehended. With Chief Wilkie was a man said to be the secretary of the Venezuelan legation.

The story of the arrests and the facts leading up to them are interesting. According to Chief Wilkie and Chief Flynn, of the New York division of the secret service, Captain Boynton came to New York in June last to finance and lay the preliminary plans for a revolution against President Castro. Captain Boynton, it is said, has been for years the local and resident manager of the Orinoco Concession, capitalized at $5,000,000, and controlling practically the entire Orinoco delta.

In some way, Captain Boynton met Lawyer Thomson, an old acquaintance, and interested him in the revolution. The captain said he wanted to find a man who would advance $10,000 with which to buy the silver bullion for turning out the coin. To such a man the captain said the sum of $50,000 would be returned if the movement against Castro proved successful. Lawyer Thomson had difficulty in interesting men of means and finally approached some men described as sporting men. One of these called to see Chief Flynn and talked with him about it. There is a Federal law protecting the coinage of other nations and Chief Flynn decided to investigate. Through agents he gained the confidence of Boynton and to them the latter confided his plans.

When arrested yesterday afternoon, Captain Boynton was then on his way to his friend's office in lower Broadway to meet Chief Flynn's agent. Under his arm was a package, which contained two dies. The dies were wonderful workmanship and a perfect intaglio of the well known "Bolívar head" dollar of Venezuela. Captain Boynton insisted that he was no counterfeiter, and that his plan, which he candidly admitted, was merely the war measure common to all South American revolutions. He said he had no intention to counterfeit the money in this country.

The captain showed both Chief Wilkie and Chief Flynn his authorization as commissioner of the revolution. It was in Spanish and bore the signature of C. y Salinas, Secretary General, and the words "Diosy Federación."

When searched, $5,400 in American money was found on the captain. In addition there was found a receipt signed by Keller Brothers, showing $1,500 had been paid in part for eight sets of dies, hubs, and devices used in milling the edges of coins.

At the same time Chief Flynn and a number of his men searched the Keller establishment in West Broadway, where the remainder of the dies and hubs were found. Other secret service officers brought Lawyer Thomson to the secret service's headquarters where he and Boynton were detained all night.

The men, if convicted, may be sentenced to five years imprisonment for attempting to counterfeit the coin of a friendly power.

OHIO ANXIOUS FOR BRYAN.

Democratic State Convention Heartily Endorsed Him for President.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
Columbus, O., August 22.—Samuel A. Hoskins, for Secretary of State; Charles W. Haupt, for State School Commissioner; Rodney J. Diegle, for State Dairy and Food Commissioner, and George E. Nyswonger, member Board Public Works, constituted the ticket named by the Ohio Democratic convention here today.

During the first hour and a half of the session, the question of an endorsement of county option in temperance legislation was under discussion, an attempt by W. L. Finley to amend the platform and give such an endorsement being defeated on a roll call.

The resolutions adopted announce steadfast adherence to the policies advocated by the late Governor John M. Pattison; cordially endorse William J. Bryan for President in 1908, stating that "We impatiently await the summons to battle under his banner;" call for home rule for each city, town and village in all matters of policy regarding all public utilities and such as street railways and lighting systems; favor election of United States Senators by direct vote of the people; require the election of delegates to future State convention by primaries; denounce the Republicans of the National House of Representatives as cowards for failing to pass the bill prohibiting insurance companies from making campaign contributions, and call attention to needful and beneficial laws enacted by the Legislature as the result of the Democratic victory last Fall.

BIG BUCKY SHOP FAILURE.

Sage & Co., of New York, Go Up for $2,000,000.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.)
New York, August 22.—M. J. Sage & Co., brokers, of No. 1 Montgomery street, Jersey City, and No. 57 Broadway, of New York, have announced the discontinuance of their Jersey City office, informing their correspondents that they had discontinued business.

The firm had branch offices in a number of cities in the East and correspondents throughout the country. Messengers were sent by Sage & Co. today to all the branch offices, notifying the local members that it had been found necessary to close up.

Sage & Co. was incorporated under the laws of the State of New York in 1904 with a capital stock of $50,000. The object of the company, as set forth in the incorporation papers, was to conduct a stock commission business. The president of the firm is Maurice J. Sage, a young man who came to this city about twelve years ago from Binghamton, N. Y.

Up to May the firm together with the Guanajuato Amalgamated Mines Company occupied joint offices at No. 42 Broadway. The Guanajuato Amalgamated Mines Company is the property of Albert J. Adams. After his release from Sing Sing he purchased this mining property located in Guanajuato Mexico, for a sum estimated at $1,000,000. Shortly after this Adams went to Mexico and now lives near his mines.

It is stated that the Sage system consisted of a string of at least 300 branch offices stretching from Maine to New Orleans, and in some quarters tonight the failures were declared to involve possibly $2,000,000.

The firm had more than 25,000 accounts outstanding. It was learned tonight that the managers of the firm had been appealing for several days to their principal financial banker for more money to tide over the crisis but he decided not to make any further remittances.

The Tennessee Democratic State convention yesterday adopted a resolution endorsing William J. Bryan for the Democratic nomination for President in 1908.

Mrs. Nicholas Longworth, of Cincinnati, wife of Congressman Longworth, and daughter of President Roosevelt, accepted an invitation yesterday to unveil the statue of William McKinley at Columbus, Ohio, September 14.

A dispatch yesterday afternoon to New Orleans from President Irion, of the State Board of Health, who is in New Iberia, La., in charge of the yellow fever situation, says: "No new cases. Situation satisfactory. Sanitary work being pushed."

One hundred Porto Ricans, to be tried as an experiment on Louisiana sugar plantations, landed at New Orleans yesterday from the steamer Arcadia, having shipped at San Juan. The experiment is being made under the auspices of the Louisiana Immigration League. If it is a success, large numbers of the islanders will be brought over to supply the annual labor scarcity on the plantations.

Liberty Council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, of Manchester, Va., one of the largest local councils in the State, has placed its affairs in the hands of trustees, on account of an alleged large shortage in its funds. The trustees will, it is said, lay the facts before the Commonwealth's Attorney and ask him to act. The officers held responsible for the shortage deny all wrong doing.

At Spata, Ga., just before the primary election polls closed yesterday afternoon, in attempting to arrest Jackson, Whitehurst, Jr., Marshal Spannon was seriously cut in the left arm by Johnnie Whitehurst. Jim Dikes, who was assisting the marshal, was cut in the back by B. E. Whitehurst. At a late hour last night Dikes is thought to be probably fatally wounded.

John A. Swan, agent of the Atlantic Coast Line Seamen's Union, at Norfolk, is missing, and a warrant charging him with embezzlement of $107 from the Union, was yesterday placed in the hands of Chief of Police Boush by an agent of the Union from Boston, who came on to investigate. Swan, it is declared, left Norfolk August 15 on a four-masted schooner, the name of which is unknown. He was bonded and his shortage will be made good. He came from Boston.

In Havana an attempt was made last evening to assassinate General Emello Nunez, governor of the province of Havana. A man had a revolver leveled at the Governor as he was entering his home. Another man who was passing by saw the would-be Governor Nunez turned and drawing his revolver, fired over the miscreant's head. The latter was so surprised that he dropped his revolver. He was promptly arrested. His identity is not known, but he is a white man and well dressed.

Improved very much within recent years, this course is still advisable and it would be regrettable that this fort should be abandoned because the people of a border city like Brownsville object to negro troops under circumstances of raid and murder such as recently occurred there.

Senator Culberson tonight said that no reply had been received. He will leave tomorrow for New York and Washington.

Fort Worth, Texas, August 22.—Clarence Ousley, editor of the Fort Worth Record, has written an open letter to President Roosevelt on the projected abandonment of Fort Brown. He concludes:

"While not so designed, its effect is to put hellish lust in the minds of the millions of negro brutes who are no more comparable to the intelligent negro you have met than the best of the race to-day is comparable to the savages of Africa. These negroes of whom I speak and whom you do not know, constitute the vast majority of the 9,000,000 living in our backyards and they are absolutely incapable of reason. Social equality to their minds means the unspeakable crime. For every aspiring and decent negro who sees the 'door of hope,' which you vainly imagine you are holding open to the race, ten thousand negroes see only the embrace of a white virgin. Cut off our rations, drive our men out of the house of their fathers as an atonement for slavery, but don't make our wives and daughters the victims of a false philosophy and a partisan regime. You have proved your greatness in many achievements, and I like to think you are honest. But you are not infallible and you cannot perform miracles."

COTTON MILL MEN ARE DISTURBED

Alleged Discovery That Immigration Bill Discriminates Against Southern Manufacturers—New England Mills Favored as to Labor.

(Raleigh News and Observer.)
Charlotte, N. C., Aug. 21.—A story, rather an eye opener it is, has gained local circulation to the effect that the New England cotton mill men have by a bold stroke of pulling wires in Congress, succeeded in fixing the South in a manner that will pretty effectually cut off its supply of labor from the annual immigration to the United States. The scheme is said to be contained in the immigration bill, section 38, which has gone through the Senate and may pass the House. There is a provision in this section which says: Provided further that the provisions of this bill shall not apply to aliens entering the United States from Canada or New Foundland after they have proven that they have been domiciled in any of the said countries for a period of three years." This follows the educational qualification, ability to read English.

This clause strung on to the end of the educational clause would, if put into practice, stop all of the immigration in the New England States as these immigrants would take advantage of entering the country from the Dominion of Canada and New Foundland, and finding ready openings and good pay in New England, would never reach the South. The measure is characterized by mill men here as one of the most striking and bold attempts to cripple the South, and at the same time benefit New England. Much feeling is being expressed over the measure here.

Blamed Without Blame

(Original.)

Everybody knows that there was something strange about my marriage. Having recently been absolved from a pledge, I have concluded to tell the story exactly as it occurred.

One summer I went to the country for a rest from professional cares that had been pressing too heavily on me and met a lady, a Mrs. Treat, whom I supposed to be a widow. We drove, boated and sang together, drifting along companionably, not recognizing that love would better describe the situation, till the summer had ended and we were on the eve of separation. Then I found myself madly in love. As for the lady, her actions spoke for her. She confessed to me that she was not a widow, but had a husband living. She was willing to get a divorce from him to marry me.

I had been a bitter opponent of divorces and, being a clergyman, had preached against them. I therefore felt it my duty to sacrifice myself to principle and told Mrs. Treat that I could not on any account marry a divorced woman. My decision seemed to be a sad blow to her, but she would not give me up. When we parted she told me that we would yet be happy together, but how that could be I could not see, for her husband was in the best of health and only a year older than herself. I begged for an explanation, but she would give me none.

Some months later on taking up a morning paper I saw that Laura R. Treat had secured a divorce from her husband, Wallace K. Treat, on the ground of adultery, the said Wallace Treat having lived for some time with another woman who passed as his housekeeper. He was a rich man, having made a fortune by investing his savings in the stock of a small corporation that had been bought out by a trust. The court directed that he should pay his wife alimony equal to one-third of his income. This made her very comfortable if not rich.

It was not long after seeing this notice that I received a letter from Mrs. Treat informing me that she had something to communicate. I replied that I had already read in a newspaper what she had to tell me and that while I did not blame her for getting her divorce I would certainly blame myself should I fail to practice what I had so long preached by marrying a divorced woman. I loved her as devotedly as before, but never so well as my self respect. In reply to this letter she wrote that I had not read all she had to say to me and that she wished to see me. If she could not convince me that a marriage with her would be consistent with my principles she would not ask me to visit her again.

To fortify my resolution I preached the next Sunday a sermon which was the most vehement attack on the marriage of divorced people that I had ever made. Then on Monday morning I took the train to see the woman with whom I was desperately in love. I found her as handsome and attractive as ever.

"Your love for me," she said, "is about to be put to a very severe strain. I shall convince you that it is no sin for either of us to marry the other. It will then remain for you to decide whether you will put yourself in a position before the world of not practicing what you have preached or never see me again."

She then told me a story which I would not have believed had I received it from the lips of any other person. That she had not told me before was because doing so would conflict with a pledge. There was another reason. I was a poor clergyman, struggling on a salary of $1,000 a year. The alimony was hers by right, and she had wished to secure it for me as well as herself.

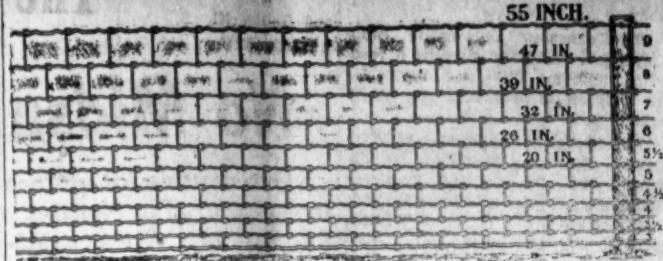

I went back to my charge pledged to secrecy and with all the time I wished to make my decision. I must marry in direct opposition, apparently, to my avowed principles or give up a woman without whom my life would be a failure in every respect.

I was willing to stand in a false light for my love, but would it not be wrong for me, a minister, to exert an influence in favor of what I considered sin? I confess I never satisfied myself on this point. I never could convince myself that I would not be demeaning my profession by appearing to countenance a sin. Nevertheless I decided that it was my duty to make my Laura happy, and in going so I made myself happy as well.

Having lived ten years scorned by many of my former parishioners I can now tell the secret which vindicates me. Two girls who were tolling for a living met and became room mates. The older hearing of a position only open to men assumed man's dress and secured it. The younger was of much assistance in a feature of the elder's work at which she was deficient, and the salary was divided between them. For convenience they were married at the same time, each promising on oath not to divulge the secret so long as the other lived except in case either really married, and then only to the husband. Suddenly the girls became rich. Then the one who had acted the man's part claimed the fortune. Leaving her supposed wife she kept house by herself, with a housekeeper, but still personating to all the world a man.

The younger after meeting me endeavored to secure her portion of the fortune and, failing, finally sued for a divorce on a charge that the elder could not disprove without revealing her sex. The claimant won and soon after the elder divided the estate with her in lieu of paying alimony. The elder has recently died, and we are absolved from secrecy.

THE COTTON MARKET.

New York, August 22.—The cotton market was considerably less active than during the last two or three days and prices ruled irregular, with the close barely steady at unchanged prices to a decline of 4 points. Sales were estimated at 250,000 bales. The market opened steady at an advance of 1 to 4 points, and shortly after the call increased the gain to a matter expected, rather less favorable crop of 5 to 7 points on higher cables than expected, rather less favorable crop news from Texas, covering of shorts and Wall Street bull support. October sold at 9.15 on the bulge. December at 9.24 and January at 9.33, which represented a record from the low point of last Monday of about 27 to 29 points, and around these figures offerings increased as a result of selling by recent buyers for a turn, who thought the reaction sufficient for the time being, and fresh sales for short account by bears who had been waiting for a rally before reselling. The market eased off under this pressure, which was aided by scattering sales by wire and commission houses with Southern connections and before midday showed a net loss of about 3 to 5 points. This was followed by a less active business and fluctuations during the late session were comparatively narrow and irregular. The close was within a couple of points of the lowest. Southern spot markets were generally unchanged. Weather reports were not considered unfavorable, but private reports claim too much rain in Texas.

Spot cotton closed quiet; middling uplands 10.10; middling gulf 10.35; sales 309 bales.

Receipts cotton at the ports to-day 8,000 bales against 4,973 last week and 7,384 last year. For the week 40,000 bales against 31,123 last week and 53,002 last year. To-day's receipts at New Orleans 771 bales against 701 last year, and at Houston 3,945 bales.

Futures opened steady and closed barely steady. Prices follow:

GOT HIS HAIR BACK.

Was Perfectly Bald When He Started

to Use Newbro's Herpicide.

Frederick Maunell, Maryland block

Butte, Montana, bought a bottle of New-bro's Herpicide, April 6, '99, and began to use it for entire baldness. The hair follicles in his scalp were not dead and in 20 days he had hair all over his head.

On July 2 he writes, "and today my hair is as thick and luxuriant as any one could wish." Newbro's Herpicide works on an old principle and with a new discovery—destroy the cause and you remove the effect. Herpicide destroys the germ that causes dandruff, falling hair,

and finally baldness, so that with the cause gone the effect cannot remain.

Stops falling hair at once and a new

HON. HOKE SMITH FOR GOVERNOR

Carried Georgia Democratic Primaries Yesterday Over Clark Howell and Others.

ATLANTA WITH THE WINNER

North Carolinian Won in 110 Out of 145 Counties—Howell's Paper Concedes His Election—Joyner for Atlanta's Mayor.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) Atlanta, August 22.—The State Democratic primaries today resulted in a victory for Hoke Smith, candidate for Governor, unprecedented in the size of his majority. Of the 145 counties in the State he has carried probably 110. By the returns available at 11 o'clock tonight, Clark Howell carried six counties; J. H. Estill, of Savannah, 12; R. B. Russell, 8; and James M. Smith, 3; leaving 16 to hear from. This result will give Hoke Smith 294 votes in the State convention of a total of 366.

Mr. Howell's paper, The Constitution in its first edition, concedes more than one hundred counties to Hoke Smith and says his nomination for Governor on the first ballot in the convention is practically assured.

In the city primaries Captain W. R. Joyner, for twenty or more years chief of the fire department, was nominated for mayor by a majority of 255 votes.

Hoke Smith carried Fulton county, the home of himself and Mr. Howell, by 1,975 majority over Mr. Howell.

One of the most strenuous political campaigns in the history of Georgia was concluded today in the State Democratic primaries which were held to nominate complete State and county tickets, candidates for Supreme Court Justices; United States Senator to succeed Senator A. O. Bacon, and to name Congressional candidates in each of the eleven districts of the State. For the office of Governor, five candidates were balloted for. These were Clark Howell, editor of the Atlanta Constitution; J. H. Estill, editor of the Savannah News; Hoke Smith, former Secretary of the Interior under President Cleveland; Judge R. B. Russell, a prominent attorney of Jackson county, and James M. Smith, of Oglethorpe county. The particular interest of the election has been the contest between Mr. Howell and Hoke Smith. The latter began his campaign through the State more than fourteen months ago. He has opposed Mr. Howell with the charge of being the representative of the so-called "Railroad Ring." The question of negro disfranchisement also has entered largely into the discussions of the campaign. The method by which this should be was little opposition, all of the present much considered.

For the rest of the State ticket there was little opposition all of the present incumbents of the various State offices being candidates for re-election. For the offices of school commissioner and comptroller only did the present incumbents have any opposition. Senator Bacon was unopposed and his renomination is assured. There were four candidates for the place made vacant by the death of Congressman Lester in the First district, and in the third district Congressman Elijah B. Lewis was opposed by Dudley M. Hughes.

In the primary today the vote was cast direct for the various candidates on the ticket. The State convention will be held at Macon, September 4th. The polls in the cities closed at 7 o'clock this evening. In the county precincts they closed at 3 o'clock in the afternoon. Reports from different parts of the State received at an early hour this evening show a good vote polled. In Atlanta the early vote was heavy, more than half the entire registered vote being cast by noon. Additional interest has been added to the voting to-day by a city Democratic primary in which Captain W. R. Joyner, for more than a score of years chief of the fire department, one of the best known fire fighters in the country, is the candidate for mayor. He is opposed by Thomas H. Goodwin, formerly a member of the fire department. This campaign has been brief but spirited, Goodwin having behind him a considerable portion of the labor vote. Captain Joyner asks the nomination on the basis of his long record in the service of the city.

A feature of the entire State campaign has been the strongly opposite positions of the Atlanta Journal, formerly owned by Hoke Smith, which has been urging his election, and the Constitution, edited by Mr. Howell.

CUBAN INSURGENTS CAPTURE SAN LUIS

Defeated Government Force and They Surrendered. Number Killed and Wounded—Former Congressman Led Rebels.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.)

Havana, August 22.—General Rodriguez, commander of the rural guard, tonight, after relating the incidents of the day, said to the Associated Press: "You can tell the American people that Cuba is entirely competent to cope with the insurrection. The flood of rumors in all directions about the organization of insurrectionary bands in great numbers are not borne out by our reports, or, so far as can be learned, by the facts. The result of the encounter at San Luis is still not known definitely. The much talked of movement in Santa Clara province has not been encountered and no insurrectionists have been seen there by our forces."

"We have today equipped and sent out in various directions 300 volunteers under competent officers. We have plenty of Remingtons and ammunition for all who enlist at present and more have been ordered from the United States."

While the foregoing is typical of the utterances of government officials, there are evidences of threatening increases in the numbers of the insurrectionists. In the province of Santa Clara the disaffection is widespread, and in the province of Havana a great many people are in sympathy with the insurgents. In some cases whole communities appear to have been carried away by the recrudescence of insurrectionary times. The extent to which this will lead to open rebellion is still uncertain.

A gentleman who has returned from Aguacate where he spent several days, stated to the Associated Press this evening that as many as 500 men, most of them armed, were riding about the vicinity proclaiming insurrectionary ideas. The principal event today was the fighting at San Luis.

One hundred recruits were started westward this evening on board a special train, but it is not likely that they will be permitted to reach San Luis.

A detachment of 100 recruits on the way to Guines had a slight encounter today with insurgents, but no one on either side was hurt.

An attempt is being made with 300 mounted rural guards and regulars to corner Quentin Bandera, who, with 150 men, is continuing his dodging tactics in the western part of the province of Havana.

Three large bands of insurgents are out in the province of Santa Clara. The insurrection appears to be growing, but the loyalists of the town claim that they will be able to resist the movement.

No insurrectionary movement is reported in the province of Matanzas, which is the stronghold of the Moderate party, beyond a band of twenty, and none in the eastern provinces excepting the bandit band of Enrique Mesa, which, for weeks has eluded pursuit in Santiago.

The government's later reports from San Luis, which, significantly, are dated from Pinar del Rio, are to the effect that Major Laurent, in this afternoon's engagement, killed four insurgents and captured a few horses and munitions. The major has not yet arrived at Pinar del Rio.

The act nearest approaching insurrection in Havana province was the seizing today of several horses which were being loaded on a train of the western railway at Salud, a suburb west of the city.

Insurgents Capture Town.

Havana, August 22.—The insurgents in the province of Pinar del Rio captured their first city there today. At 9 o'clock this morning the force led by Pino Guerra, an ex-Congressman and influential man, and who was thought to be many miles eastward, and sundry other insurgent bands, attacked San Luis, which is situated on the railroad about ten miles west of Pinar del Rio city. A sharp and decisive engagement followed, during which a number of men were killed or wounded. The town was defended by less than 100 rural guards, fifty of whom surrendered to the insurgents and are held as prisoners. The insurgent forces are in possession of the railroad station and of the town, which is resuming its normal condition. By the capture of San Luis, which has about 5,000 inhabitants, the insurgents have obtained an important base for future operations.

Government Not Alarmed.

Havana, August 22.—At the palace here there was a disposition late this afternoon to minimize the importance of the insurgents' success at San Luis, the statement being made that while the insurgents were in possession of the town, the rural guards in their quarters were still holding out.

The agent of the Western Railway at San Luis station, which is a mile and one-third from the town, reports that the town has been taken by insurgents, who have surrounded the station. The agent did not know the number killed or wounded, but believed it was small. The fighting was quickly over.

The garrison of San Luis is known to number less than fifty. The population of the town is 5,000.

To Crush Insurrection.

Havana, August 22.—President Palma, in an interview with the correspondent of the Associated Press today, said:

"Our situation, at first, was one of unpreparedness, as is usual in such cases. We are taking a little time to prepare to cope with it. But there is positively no cause for alarm. The movement in Santa Clara province is small. In Matanzas it is trifling, and the bands in Pinar del Rio are smaller than reported and are poorly led."

The enlistment of recruits for the rural guards in Havana is proceeding rapidly. The people in the towns continue asking for arms in order to defend the government, but the impossibility of accurately gauging the dominant motives in the Cuban character adds another element to the uncertainty of the situation.

Secretary of the Treasury Font Sterling, one of the most reliable members of the government, informed the Associated Press this afternoon that the government had been definitely informed that the insurgents in Santa Clara provinces were, with the exception of machetes and revolvers, mostly unarmed.

Pactically all the inhabitants of the town of Aguacate have, with the mayor, declared themselves in insurrection against the government.

A dispatch from Rancho Veloz, province of Santa Clara, says that a band of insurgents has been organized there under Colonel Reinos.

Governor Nunez, of Havana province, says that the organization of his local loyal bands, has begun here. Special precautions are being taken to protect the reservoir at Vento and the pumping station at Palatino. Parties of insurgents have been seen in the neighborhood of both these places.

American dealers have been commissioned to buy hundreds of horses for the use of the rural guards now being recruited.

HARRY K. THAW'S DEFENSE.

Decision Reached to Enter Plea of Emotional Insanity.

(By Wire to The Morning Star.) New York, August 22.—A decision was reached today by the attorneys for Harry K. Thaw that Thaw's defense to the charge of killing Sanford White will be a plea of emotional insanity. This will include as a part of the defense the declaration that Thaw's insanity existed only until after White was killed and that Thaw is now sane again and has been sane since the killing. The decision to make this plea was reached after the reports of two alienists who visited Thaw in the Tombs yesterday had been communicated to Clifford W. Hartridge, of Thaw's counsel.

It was decided also today that Mrs. Harry K. Thaw will be the chief witness of the defense in its effort to prove that Thaw was insane when he killed White. It was over the question whether a plea of insanity should be made that Thaw and his former counsel disagreed, resulting in the dismissal of the lawyers. The plea insisted upon by Thaw's former counsel included the admission that he is now insane and if accepted by the court and jury would have caused his confinement in an insane asylum. The plea now decided upon makes no such admission.

Mrs. Harry K. Thaw, accompanied by Miss May McKenzie called at the prison today and talked with Thaw. Mrs. Van Rensselaer Cruger also called and talked with the prisoner for an hour. Her visit, she said, had no significance and was based wholly on the fact that she was a friend of the family.

FRISCO HORROR WAS REPRODUCED

Thursday's Earthquake in Valparaiso Left Death and Ruin in Its Wake.

NUMBER OF KILLED 2,000

In Many Districts Most All Buildings Were Destroyed—Eighty Thousand People Will Leave Devastated City—People Camping.

(By Cable to The Morning Star.) Valparaiso, August 22.—From the Plaza de La Victoria, as far as the plaza in the section called Las Delicias, four-fifths of the houses are completely destroyed and the remaining fifth are badly damaged. From the Plaza de La Victoria down to the custom house, only about one-third of the houses sustained damage. The banks of the city and the customs warehouses were not damaged. With the exception of Espiritu Santo, all the churches in the city were destroyed, as were the hospitals and the theatres. The number of dead is more than 2,000.

The offices of the Hovas agency, although seriously damaged, are still being used for the company's business. Tragic scenes of the San Francisco disaster were reproduced here. There was the fight against fire, the lack of water and robbery and pillage.

The authorities are now beginning to get in provisions and water again is being supplied. All the fires have been extinguished.

The first shock lasted four minutes and a half and the second two minutes. Most of the houses were thrown down by the second shock. Estimates of the damage range from $25,000,000 to $50,000,000.

The Alameda quarter has been absolutely destroyed. The people are still camping on the surrounding hills and in the streets and plazas and only today calm and courage is returning.

The declaration is made that 80,000 people will leave the city. The lack of food is not yet serious.

Telegraphic communication with Santiago was re-established yesterday. A number of steamers are engaged in moving the people of the city to points to the north and south.
